

EURASIA PHOTO CONTEST

REGULATION

The 2021 edition of EURASIA PHOTO CONTEST, entitled “19” will be inspired by the worldwide Covid-19 pandemic. The contest aims to involve photographers and dancers passionate about photography from all over the world in order to collect historical archive material about what can be considered a unique event, which will leave an indelible mark in the history of human beings. Photographers and artists are encouraged to send their most beautiful and significant photos immortalizing this unrepeatable period of pandemic and quarantine that we all have experienced during these months. Photos can be indoors or outdoors but must always have a protagonist: the body. The "Call" is interested in identifying those works that enclose the body - one or more bodies - in relation to the space, a common space that has been contaminated and thus transformed from its original structure by the Covid-19 alarm. We are looking for pictures in which the work of the dancing body is clearly inspired in its poses by the surrounding dynamics, for example in relation to home spaces or deserted streets during the quarantine. These kind of proposals will be strongly appreciated, but this is not mandatory in order to win the contest. Once again, this new EurAsia Event wants to help EurAsia Students & Dancers in Europe who, like all of us, are fighting this battle against COVID-19 and who, far from their families, and with a precarious economic condition, could not keep working.

The applications will be accepted within the 30th September 2021 only upon receipt of all required documentation. All proceeds from the event will be used first to cover the technical costs of the tour of the exhibitions and the remainder will be fully donated and divided among the EurAsia Students & Dancers with greater economic issues. The total budget given by the registrations, the total used for the living costs of the event and the final amount donated to charity will be listed and specified on the website www.eurasiadanceproject.com.

The Contest is supported by the Italian Cultural Institute of Dakar in Senegal and by the Italian Cultural Institute of Jakarta in Indonesia.

1) EURASIA DANCE PROJECT INTERNATIONAL NETWORK

EurAsia Dance Project International Network has more than 20 EurAsia Partners in 18 countries all over the world through Europe, Asia, Middle East, Africa, Pacific States and Central America. It has become one of the biggest dance networks worldwide and one of the cultural "bridges" linking the five continents. The Network is supported by the Europe Union Delegation, Italian Embassy, Italian Consulate and Italian Cultural Institute in the countries where EurAsia is based, by all the EurAsia Partners, and also by governments and institutions, both private and public.

EurAsia Dance Project International Network is a Non Profit Association legalized by the Italian Government: it is a great opportunity for young dancers and choreographers of any origin. It enables them to study abroad and spread out their culture, share their experiences, giving them access to artistic residencies, meetings, shows and dance opportunities at the highest level of the global dance scene.

The EurAsia Auditions are on tour also in the poorest and most dangerous countries of the globe in order to give a chance to all those kids who share our same passion, helping them to fight for a better life and to fulfill their dream of becoming professional dancers.

The network wants to be a chance for cultural exchange and cultural meetings. It allows these students to take auditions for the biggest academies of Europe without flying abroad. The students selected during the EurAsia Auditions win a 50% / 80% scholarship for all the 3 / 4 year professional programs.

This year the EurAsia Auditions 2020 are on tour in Iran, India, Mexico, Indonesia, Kuwait, Senegal, Armenia, Nepal and many other countries.

After being selected, students become part of EurAsia International Network as EurAsia Students and they get the chance to be chosen for international exchange studying programs, as well as for dance contests, artistic residencies, international festivals and other dance opportunities abroad, granted by all the EurAsia Partners. EurAsia also involves them in its own activities: EurAsia Summer Camp, EurAsia Prize, EurAsia Dance Award, EurAsia VideoDance Contest, EurAsia World Flashmob, EurAsia Students Exchange, EurAsia Teachers Exchange and EurAsia Repertory.

All the EurAsia initiatives in Europe are free of charge for the EurAsia Students. EurAsia is taking care of everything they need.

Once they finish their professional training, our students become EurAsia Dancers and they have the chance to work with the biggest international dance companies, EurAsia Partners, and of course for EurAsia Dance Company on tour all over the world.

Our non european partners give their talents the chance to be selected, and our european partners give them the chance to study and become real professionals.

EurAsia Dance Project International Network has become one of the biggest dance networks and the first dance network ever that is taking care of the education, at professional level, of the talents coming from all over the world, giving them the chance to proceed in this career. At the same time we take to Europe the knowledge of traditional dances, still unknown in our countries, from different and far regions of the planet.

EurAsia is the first network ever combining art, human rights, education, safeguarding the cultural heritage in only one huge project involving hundreds of different people and many cultures, countries and continents.

With the support of all the EurAsia Partners, Stefano Fardelli is creating the first generation of contemporary professional dancers in many countries all over the world, changing the dance history of these countries but also helping them to spread out their cultures abroad, breaking the borders between the continents.

Thanks to these new cultural meetings and fusions, EurAsia also gave birth to a new taste in contemporary dance, where different bodies, different ways of moving and traditional dances meet in one single place: Europe.

Thanks to the several dance opportunities granted by the EurAsia Partners, EurAsia is opening its calls for European Dancers too. Since 2016, when the network was founded, our European Students have had the chance to study with many talents coming from abroad and to travel to their distant countries, in order to experience the stories they heard from their foreigner classmates.

Here below a list of the EurAsia Partners part of EurAsia Dance Project International Network directed by Stefano Fardelli:

- DanceHaus of Milan (Italy)
